

LAB REPORT RUBRIC

Principia? Or, down in flames.

FORMATTING	WRITING STYLE	USE OF SCIENTIFIC METHOD	DATA AND CALCULATIONS	WAS IT ANY GOOD	POINTS EARNED
Typed, 1" margins, heading, citations, cover page, fonts are not distracting.	As good as a newspaper.	Question, research, hypothesis, experiment, analysis, and conclusion all employed correctly.	Charts and graphs are neatly presented and easy to read. Calculations are neat, tidy and correct.	A fellow student could take your report and use it to reproduce the results as they were described in the report.	NAILED IT 4 points
Missing one or two of the above.	Only one or two mistakes.	Mostly understood the sci method, but gaps or misunderstandings are noticeable.	Charts and graphs present, but improvements are needed. Calculations are present, but need refining.	Report can be used to reproduce most of your results, but a few parts are unclear or confusing.	ALMOST THERE 3 points.
Missing several of the above.	Very sloppy, errors were everywhere.	Elements of the sci method present, but it's unclear if they are used correctly.	Graph and charts are incomplete or missing critical elements. Calculations are sloppy or some are missing.	Report could be used to reproduce parts of experiment but it's difficult to follow.	NEEDS WORK 2 points
Missing all of the above.	Whutz is a grahamare?	Just winging it.	Charts, pictures, and graphs are needed and are absent. Calculations claim $1 + 1 = 3$.	Report is mostly incomprehensible.	AT LEAST YOU SHOWED UP 1 point
No report submitted.	No report submitted.	No report submitted.	No report submitted.	No report submitted.	0 points
